

RUTHIE

Blue you know
Like water
Tropical waters, a beach, a pool
Grandchildren on her back
She felt all the feels

Yellow you know
Like daffodils
Gardens and sunsets in all our rooms
She felt all the feels

Brown you know
Like warm hugs
Meatballs and ruggies forever a sleigh ride for the tongue
She felt all the feels

Green you know
Like leaves
A little room filled with plants, balmy breeze through glass slats
She felt all the feels

Red you know
Like a rose
Picked and placed for a snapshot on a white wall
She felt all the feels

Black you know
Like music notes
Shouted from the kitchen, stong, sure, a hit

The feels all of them were real.
